Additional Tips

There are many additional employment opportunities on and off-campus for UCLA students. Here are some tips for finding a job:

- If you qualify for Work Study, visit the Work Study Web site for job listings:
<http://www.fao.ucla.edu/workstudy/portal.htm>
- Check with professors to see if they have assistantships or research opportunities available
- Academic departments and student programs offices employ student workers
- Westwood also offers job opportunities in retail, food service, etc. within walking distance of campus. Additionally, check out the Daily Bruin classifieds for off-campus listings:
